WM. MARTIN Obituary.

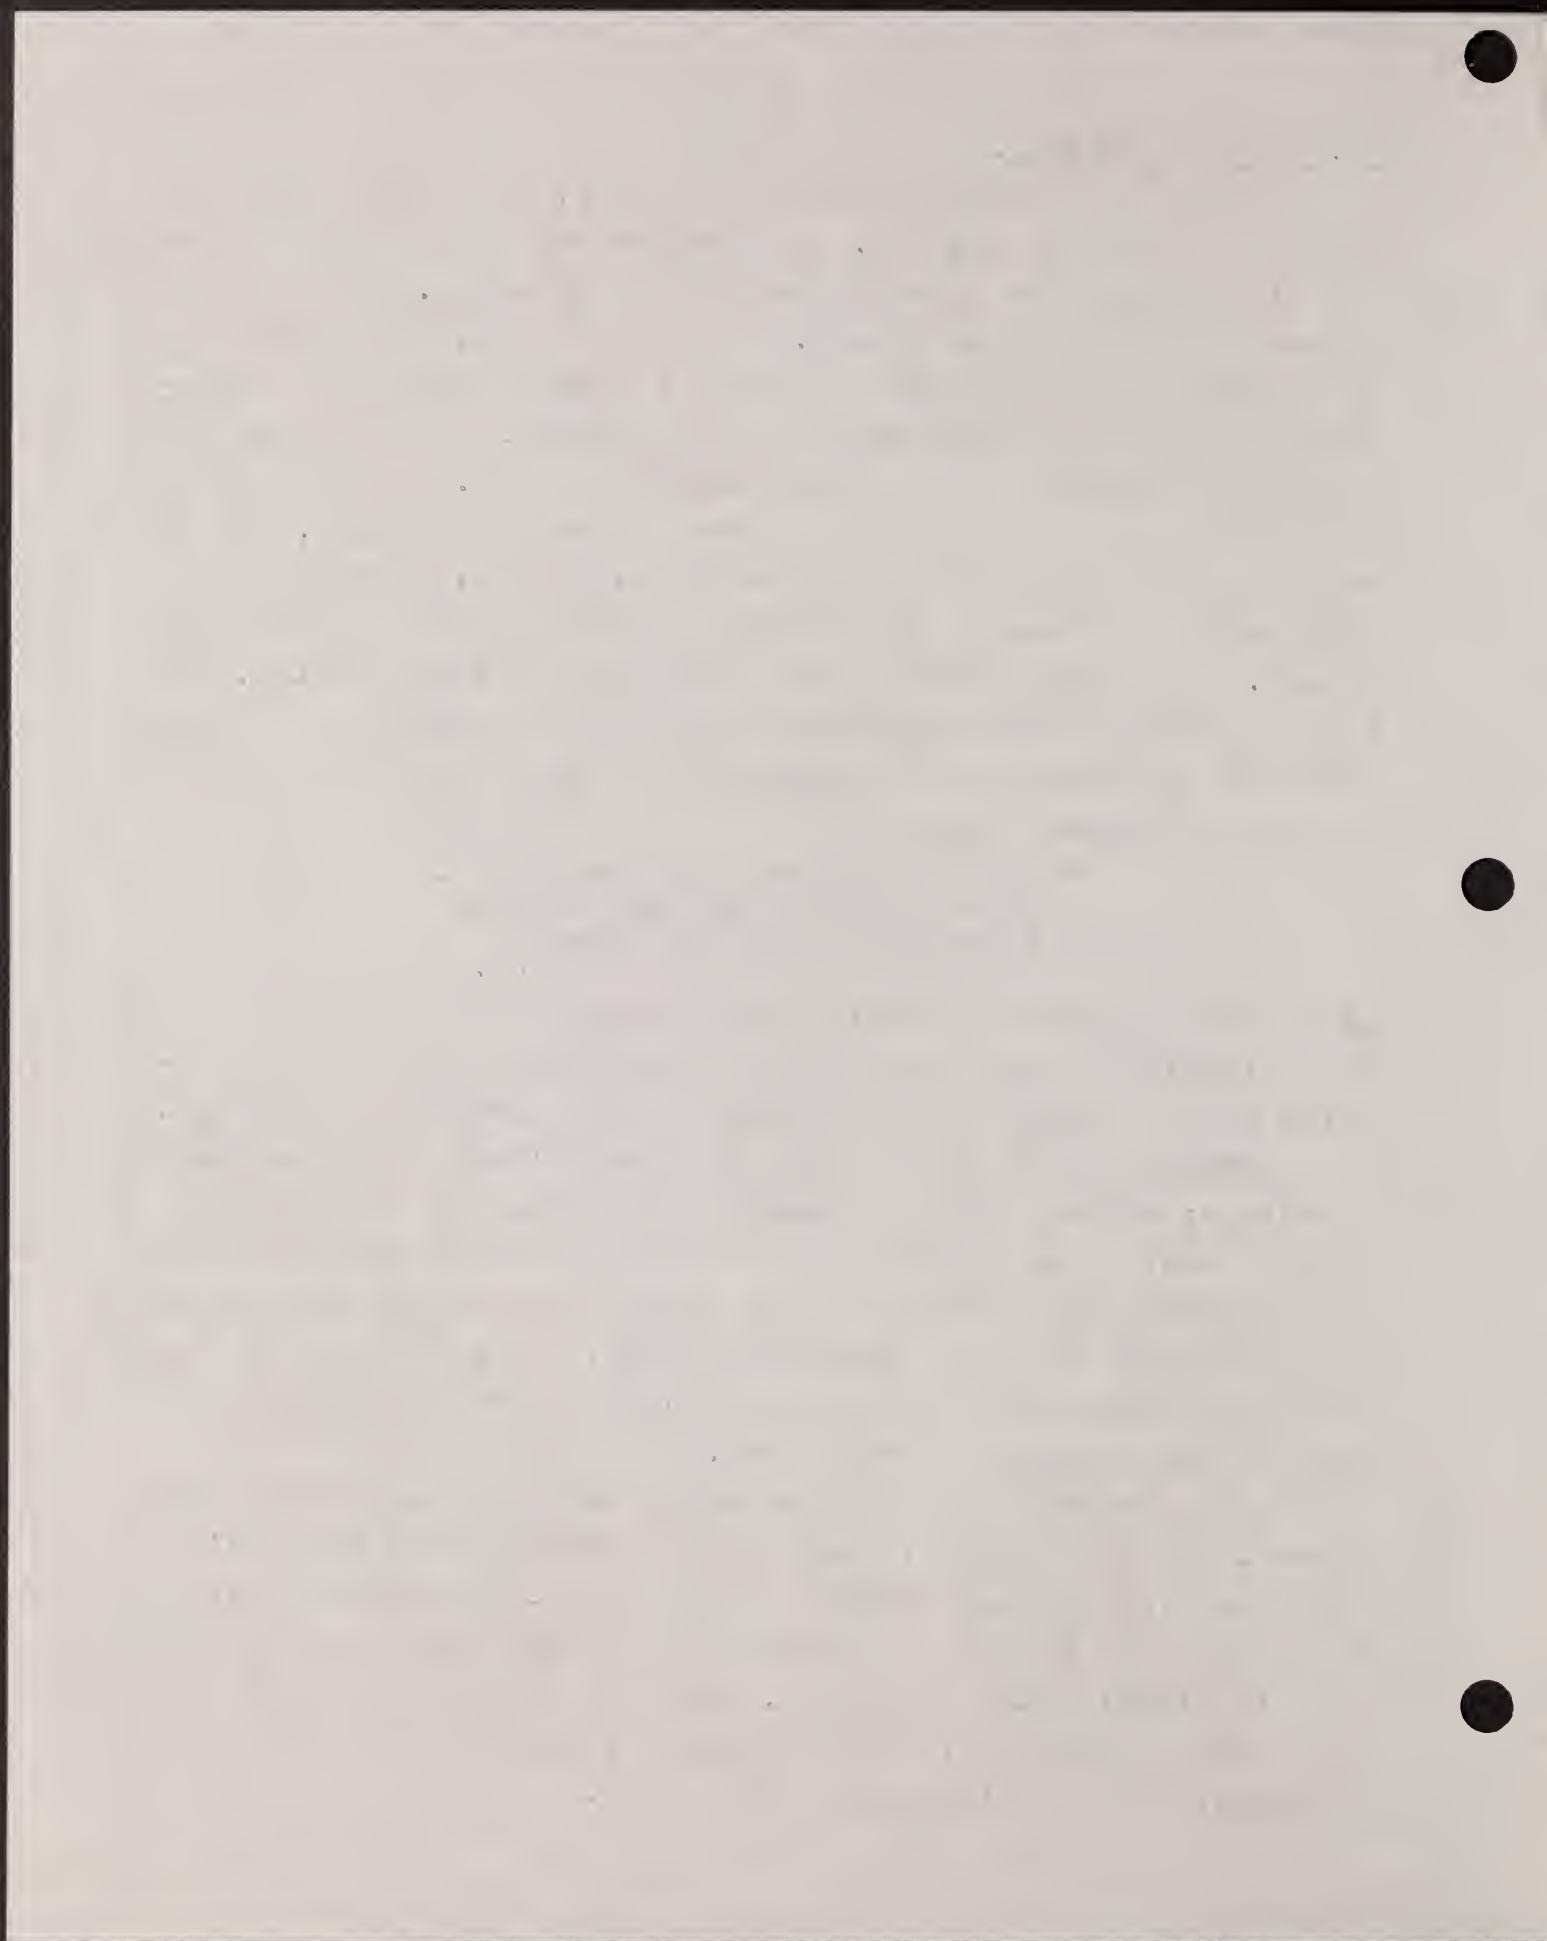

Another of the old fathers in Isreal, who have borne the burden and heat of the day, and who are connecting links between the present and the historic period of Methodism, has lately passed to his rest and reward. William Martin, familiarly known for many past years as Father Martin was born in Ernest-town in 1791, (the year in which our immortal founder died) of Methodist parents and of an old American Stock. He was brought under deep conviction of sin at the early age of eight, but not receiving that instruction suited to his years, he failed to apprehend the blessing of conscious pardon until sixteen years of age. With him it was a hard struggle for the blessing. He had frequently been with Bunyan pilgrim in the slough of despond but while listening to some who had recently been set at liberty singing the simple stanzas

"Jesus caught me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He to rescue me from danger;
Interposed his precious blood."

He was enabled in the exercise of a simple and confiding faith to cast himself on the merits of the "Speaking blood", and to rejoice in the comfortable assurance of his acceptance with God.

Sometime afterward he married Nancy O'Neil, of Presbyterian parentage; and on their settlement soon after in the township of Portland, he was among the first to throw open his house to the "perambulating preachers" of those days--as was wont to call them--not only as their hospitable home, but as a rude and simple sanctuary where they might worship God and break the bread of life to the famishing around them.

Father Martin was not distinguished by any brilliancy of talent, but he faithfully used what talents he had for God's glory and for the advancement of his cause. For upwards of fifty years he filled the offices of exhorter and class leader with fidelity; until at length, full of years and ripe for heaven, the Master called him, when he calmly fell asleep on the 27th of November, 1872 in his eighty first year.

WM. MARTIN Obituary cont'd:

Nancy O'Neil for upwards of fifty years the faithful partner of the above in all the joys and sorrows of a long life, was born in Ernesttown in the year 1796; and after serving God in her day and generation as the faithful wife and the kind indulgent mother, she exchanged mortality for life in the year 1868, aged seventy-two.
